How can we demonstrate 21st Century Learning in Action at Southwest CTA?

Skylar Visser, Brinda Sosa, Jeannette Marquez & Jaysa Mia Dizon

Critical Thinking

Together as a team, we used our analytical and critical thinking skills to understand ethos, logos, and pathos, along with matching the quotes to the correct persuasive article.

Being able to comprehend and evaluate the given article was an essential part of being able to identify the 6 parts scientific method and whether the experiment was morally wrong.
