"Texting, tweeting, posting, blogging constantly; it's what this generation knows best. Walk away from the laptop, phone, and tablet.

Discover momentous music and travel the world. Meet new people and unearth the different cultures. Understand different religions. Communicate with others in another language, even if it's obvious the knowledge of everything is absent."

Warhol inspired art style 2014

"A euphoric atmosphere is conceived And no one's recognition of progress but her own is sufficient.

It's as if adventure and experience Had combed through her soul, Detangling the damage.

She wastes fallen lashes and 11:11's

On world peace, in hopes that her wishes will Wisp unmindlessly for all to feel.

Exchanging sorry and suicide notes

For love letters strictly intended for the world All she comes across drives her."
